

The Formentera Department of Tourism reports that Friday 25 September marks the start of the latest Formentera Zen. A programme spanning talks, workshops and classes will take place outdoors at Gecko Beach Club in line with Covid-19 protocol.

Showcasing nine leaders in the fields of personal health and wellness, the programme will begin after a 6.30pm welcome address to attendees from Consell de Formentera president and tourism chief Alejandra Ferrer. Workshops and classes will continue all day Saturday and into the day on Sunday.

The complete programme can be viewed here. The Consell de Formentera contracted Puro Bienestar to organise the event.
