The Consell de Formentera education department reports that this Saturday, 26 October, classes begin for singers in the Formentera Polyphonic Choir. All those interested in joining can send an email to the island's School of Music and Dance at escolamusica@conselldeformentera.cat.

Classes, offered at no charge, will take place twice a month, 10.00am to 2.00pm, at the School of Music and Dance. The first session will begin with an introduction from the choir's new director, Juan Carlos Ballesteros. The following sessions are set for 9 and 23 November and 14 December.

23 October 2019
Department of Communication
Consell de Formentera