

Formentera Local Police report that on April 8 officers arrested an individual accused of putting public health in danger and undermining the authority of law enforcement agents.

The arrest occurred during a routine stop in ses Bardetes, when officers questioned a 28-year-old Colombian man, initials M.L.R.Y. The individual resisted and pushed one of the officers to the ground. He sustained light injuries.

A search of the man turned up 45 grams of hashish one gram of marijuana, 1,031 euros and 31 dollars USA. The man has been arraigned by the court.

April 12, 2019
Àrea de Comunicació
Formentera Council