

The Consell de Formentera has put together a video encouraging islanders to support herd immunity and a speedy return to normalcy by answering the call to get vaccinated when they receive it.

The video will be shared across social media platforms and highlights the vaccine's advantages in an effort to encourage solidarity around the vaccination push.

6 May 2021

Communications Department

Consell de Formentera